Nevertheless, where necessary and possible, we will make arrangements to take account of a student's special needs by making reasonable adjustments to the training and/or assessment requirements. This does not mean that a student will gain an unfair advantage over other students.

A student with any special needs, including a disability or learning difficulty, must disclose it on their application for enrolment and discuss it with the office before commencing the course. Also, it may be necessary for a student to provide a relevant certificate from their doctor.

Examples of variations to assessment tasks may include allowing additional time to complete an assignment or test, substituting one form of assessment task for another, or providing support personnel (e.g. a writer).

At all times Above & Below Adventure Company Pty Ltd will fulfil its obligations under Equal Opportunity and Anti-Discrimination legislation, including the Federal Disability Discrimination Act 1992. For students with special needs, a Learning and Assessment Agreement will be negotiated to take account of the student's condition and, if necessary, alter the standards of training and/or assessment processes.

Attendance and Progress

Depending on your courses, students may be required to attend a particular training/assessment session. Prior notice of this will be given so students have time to make any necessary arrangements.

The specific skills and knowledge required for a particular workplace activities are set out in Units of Competency which can be grouped together to formulate the completion of a nationally recognised qualification. Nationally recognised qualifications are outlined in Training Packages. These can be viewed at www.training.gov.au.

Each qualification has a list of employability skills which describe the non-technical skills and competencies that are important for effective and successful participation in the workforce. For each qualification there are specific employability skills listed under the following headings:

- Communication

- Problem solving
- Initiative and enterprise
- Planning and organizing

Each Unit of Competency is made up of the following:

- Mutual Recognition (MR).

All clients have the opportunity to apply for recognition. This means that you can submit evidence for a Unit(s) of Competency and have it assessed by a qualified Assessor without completing the training.

All evidence must be submitted within 90 days of initial enrolment (this allows sufficient time for a student to undertake any gap training if required).

Above & Below Adventure Company Pty Ltd believes that no learner should be required to undertake a unit of competency for which they are already able to demonstrate satisfactory achievement of the performance outcomes, as stated in the endorsed training package or nationally recognised course.

Above & Below Adventure Company Pty Ltd aims to maximise the recognition of a learner's prior skills and knowledge whilst at all times maintaining the integrity and standards of the defined learning outcomes of the specific qualification or course of study. Clients who consider they already possess the competencies identified in all or part of any course/qualification offered by Above & Below Adventure Company Pty Ltd may seek recognition.

If you think you have the necessary knowledge and skills to match a Unit(s) of Competency or a qualification at the required standard you can elect to enrol in Recognition of Prior Learning when selecting the course type at enrolment.

Recognition Process

Recognition is a method of assessing if you have evidence of competency for a particular unit of competency that you are enrolled in. It is important to remember that Recognition is an assessment process not an assumption of competence.

Recognition is the determination, on an individual basis, of the competencies obtained by a client through:

- previous formal training
- work experience, and/or
- life experience.

Recognition therefore determines the subsequent advanced standing to which the client is entitled in relation to a course/qualification. The main focus of Recognition is what has been learned rather than how, where or when it was learned. Recognition focuses on both the demonstration of competence and the currency of that competence to industry standards.

It is important to note, the onus is on the client to document and present evidence to justify a claim for recognition and present their case to the satisfaction of the Assessor.

Any documents that you provide to support your claim of competency must be certified copies. It is also expected that any evidence submitted is your own and if any part of the work is the work of others, that this is formally acknowledged and advised.

Detailed information in regards to the Recognition of Prior Learning process can be found on our website:

Recognition Decision

Regardless of the type of evidence that you submit, Assessors must be confident that the evidence meets the following criteria:

- Full requirements of the Unit of Competency(s);
- Any Regulatory requirements;
- Authenticity - That it is your own evidence and can be authenticated;
- That you can perform the competency consistently and reliably;
- Is at the standard expected in industry and set out in the Australian Qualification Framework (AQF);
- Sufficiency - There is sufficient evidence to make a judgment.

Above & Below Adventure Company Pty Ltd is committed to ensuring that all judgments made by Assessors against the same competency standards are consistent. Your Assessor will examine the evidence that you present and then make a judgment on that evidence which will be either:

- Competent (C) - you have been deemed competent against all the requirements of the Unit/s of Competency
- Not Yet Competent (NYC) - you have not yet demonstrated competency to all requirements.

Your assessor will advise you what you can do if you receive a NYC for your assessment task. If you are deemed NYC in your initial assessment, you are allowed a second attempt. However, if you are deemed NYC in the second attempt, you will be required to re-enrol. Please talk to your assessor if you have any concerns.

Credit Transfer/ Mutual Recognition

Above & Below Adventure Company Pty Ltd recognises the AQF qualifications and Statements of Attainment issued by other Registered Training Organisations (RTOs). This is commonly referred to as Mutual Recognition or Credit Transfer. Mutual recognition is applicable when a Statement of Attainment or qualification provided by a client has the same national competency codes as those that form part of the training and assessment program within which the client is enrolled or is intending to enrol. With Credit Transfer client's are not required to undertake learning in the unit/s again.
